SCOPE AND CONTENT: The Hite Family Association Collection contains correspondence, Bible records, biographies, newsletters, and other genealogical materials concerning the Hite and allied families. Newsletters have been digitized as PDFs and are kept on a flash drive with the collection.

BIOGRAPHICAL/HISTORICAL: The Hite Family Association, established 1991, is dedicated to sharing and preserving the history of the Hite and allied families. The Hite family who settled in Frederick County, Virginia, are descended from Jost Hite (1685-1761) and Anna Maria Merckle (d. 1738). In the early 1700s the Hites joined a number of German families migrating to the American colonies, settling first in Pennsylvania and then, in 1732, in the Shenandoah Valley. Jost Hite and his family became prominent landowners in Frederick County. His grandson, Isaac Hite Jr. owned Belle Grove in Middletown, Va.

RELATED MATERIAL: Belle Grove Collection, 890 THL, Hite-Bowman-Hall Family Papers, 168 WFCHS; John P. Hite Diary, 191 THL MMF; Isaac Fontaine Hite Papers, 251 THL.
