Some materials may require special handling.

PROCESSING INFORMATION: Processed by Buffy Knappenberger. Last updated April 2024.

EXTENT: 4.587 linear feet

CREATOR: Miller family, Henkel family.

DATE: 1806 – 1988 (bulk 1800s)

LANGUAGE OF MATERIALS: English and German

EXISTENCE AND LOCATION OF COPIES: Photographs in this collection have been digitized and are available to view online through the Past Perfect online database: <http://handley.pastperfectonline.com/>

SCOPE AND CONTENT: The James A. Miller Collection contains material from both the Miller and the Henkel families. The first part of the collection contains letters from Abram Shultz Miller to Julia Virginia Miller from 1861 to 1864 describing events, battles, and troop movement during the Civil War. There are also other miscellaneous papers concerning Abram S. Miller, including his marriage license to Virginia Henkel and post war correspondences. This extensive collection contains many writings of Dr. James Miller touching on Valley history and medicine in Winchester, VA. The second part of the collection is concerned with the Henkel family including correspondences of Solomon Henkel, Samuel Henkel, Paul Henkel, Casper Henkel, and Henkel family records. A highlight of this part of the collection is the group of biographical sketches of Paul Henkel. The collection is concerned with miscellaneous papers and writings of Dr. Miller, Miller family Bibles, and publishings from Solomon Henkel Press of New Market, VA. Also, items associated with this collection are in the map cases and photo collection associated.

BIOGRAPHICAL/HISTORICAL: Dr. James A. Miller was a direct descendent of Godfrey Miller (1730-1803) who arrived in Winchester c. 1766, when he married Anna Maria Kurtz (1749-1822). One of their sons, Abraham Miller (1777-1842), married Rebecca Schultz in 1842. Their son, Abram Schultz Miller (1830-1896) married Julia V. Henkel. One of their children, Dr. Casper Otto Miller was the father of James A.

RELATED MATERIAL: For information on closely related families, see also the Alfred D. Henkel Collection, 162 WFCHS, or the Miller Family Collection, 301 WFCHS.

IMMEDIATE SOURCE OF ACQUISITION: Gift of multiple donors.
