

GUARDIANS

THE

HISTORY

Join us for a panel discussion featuring four accomplished women, all John Handley High School graduates, who among them have dedicated over 124 years to preservation of local history and historical structures. Much of what residents and visitors appreciate about this community's commitment to history is attributable to these "guardians" and the organizations they have helmed.

Rebecca Ebert, Retired Archivist, Stewart Bell, Jr. Archives, Handley Regional Library
Cissy Shull, Executive Director, Winchester-Frederick County Historical Society
Sandra Bosley, Executive Director, Preservation of Historic Winchester, Inc.
Maral S. Kalbian, Architectural Historian and Preservation Consultant

Moderated by Jonathan A. Noyalas, Professor of History, Shenandoah University
