Veterans Poetry Workshop

Your Story Deserves to Be Heard.

Do you have something to say, yet don't know how to say it?

Looking for ways to express yourself and want to try something new?

Want to spend time with likeminded people who understand your journey?

with Wayne David Hubbard

Your Veterans Poetry Project Instructor

Military Legacy: Marine Corps veteran with service in Iraq and Japan.

Professional Expertise: M.S. in Organizational Leadership from Shenandoah University, award-winning poet, artist, and guest lecturer.

Global Perspective: Author of two poetry collections and essayist on subjects of home, history, science, and culture.

Transform your experience into Powerful Poetry

Join fellow veterans in a supportive workshop where you'll discover words that capture your unique story. Create, share, and receive thoughtful feedback on poetry about the veteran experience in a safe, understanding environment.
